

Say Yank Police Sent to Bahamas

NASSAU, Bahamas, Sept. 25.—(CPI)—A report that United States soldiers were secretly flown here in 1942 at the Duke of Windsor's request during a labor crisis met skepticism in informed quarters yesterday.

These sources said it was "unlikely" the troops were sent here at the Duke's request although they may have been sent to strengthen a U.S. military police unit.

The comment was occasioned by a Berlin dispatch quoting a veteran of the old United States 8th Cavalry Regiment as saying 128 of its men were flown to the Bahamas to keep order during the labor trouble.

The analysis, now on duty in Berlin said the Duke of Windsor—then governor of the Bahamas—had appealed to Washington for assistance in the crisis.

Some think the name Rome is derived from the word "rumor" meaning rumor, so that Rome would signify "city beside the river."

Sir Ashley Sparks of the Cunard-White Star Line, owner of the Queen Mary and Queen Elizabeth, also was aboard and said the two big ships would be continued in troopship service until the United States government said it no longer needed them. It had been reported the ships would be reconverted to passenger service.

No Bath Tubs Are Available For Vets' Homes

By P. W. DEMPSON
Edmonton Bulletin Ottawa Bureau
OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—Returned servicemen and their families, who occupy the 10,000 wartime dwellings being constructed across Canada by Wartime Housing Limited will probably have to do without bathtubs for a time.

Orders for the bath tubs were placed with eastern manufacturers some time ago because of the labor and material shortages. It doesn't look as if a single bath tub will be available by the time the houses are ready for occupancy.

The Ottawa branch of Wartime Housing Limited said Friday the majority of the dwellings have not yet reached the stage where they require bath tubs. Construction of most of these houses has been held up due to shortages of building materials. However, some of them will be ready to live in shortly, and the prospects at present are anything but bright that bath tubs can be installed in them before they are occupied.

HOPED FOR SOON
It was explained that when contracts for the houses were let, orders were placed for lumber, cement, other building materials—bath tubs had been delivered, but Wartime Housing Ltd., a hopeful sign, had not yet received them.

Regardless of whether the tubs are available or not, said an official, they are not holding up construction of the houses. Once they are delivered, it will be only a matter of installing them. It is true that it may be an inconvenience for the families who occupy the houses, but this difficulty should not prevail for any length of time.

LUNENBURG, Germany, Sept. 25.—(Reuters)—The first full story of how Keith Lester, a British seaman captured in Norway, was shot dead in Belsen horror camp was told yesterday by Dr. Fritz Leo, the first German witness to be called in the trial of Josef Kramer, commandant of the camp, and his subordinates before the British court here.

Leo, gray haired Berliner, said that Meyer, one of those whose deaths the accused are charged with causing, was captured in a raid on the Norwegian coast and was not taken to a prisoner of war camp but in Sachsenhausen concentration camp and from there to Belsen. After a month he was in hospital with typhus. One night he was taken from his sick bed to a room of the black leaders and was shot dead.

A Week-End Job

For those who have not already gone through their family wardrobes to select contributions to the National Clothing Drive, this coming week-end offers a fine chance to make one's contribution.

Collections begin on the South Side on Monday and other districts will be covered throughout the week. Since the campaign lasts for 20 days, there is no need to be in any hurry.

This is why it is necessary and urgent to have clothing parcels properly packed and tagged well in advance of the day when the parcels are to be distributed to the inhabitants of that district will be prepared.

The success of this vital and humanitarian effort in Edmonton will depend entirely upon the manner in which Edmonton people will co-operate.

They can contribute their best by being ready for the collectors.

What About This?

The Community Chest campaign has not been going very well. For whatever reason, it has dragged from the beginning.

Up to yesterday, only $10,000 had been collected, leaving more than $40,000 to be made up. That the needed $100,000 will be in when the original time limit expires this evening there is some hope.

This does not properly reflect the amount of concern Edmonton people have for those among us who need help.

Their appreciation for the work that is being carried on by the 28 affiliated help organizations which depend upon the Community Chest for funds.

The poor showing falls in these respects, as really it does in the financial results.

The $100,000 asked for is needed to carry on the work of these associated organizations during the coming year.

Because the city is growing there will be more cases than before and more help is needed. But also, because it is growing, there are more pockets from which a contribution can be spared.

It is impossible to estimate the shortage which will not be quickly made up.

Another Road to the North

Construction of the Grimshaw-Great Slave Lake highway will be another important step toward opening up the great northland for the benefit of the Dominion-Provincial undertaking.

All the road will be about 400 miles long, 250 of it within the province. The federal treasury will bear the bulk of the cost of the 150 miles beyond the provincial border, and half the cost of the section inside the boundary.

The preliminary completed plans are to be laid and cleared right of way during the winter and take in heavy construction machinery before the spring thaw.

The building operations will employ over a hundred men during the summer and until the work is finished. The cost of the road is placed at $2,000,000.

The chief immediate purpose is to facilitate the moving of equipment and supplies to Yellowknife and other mining centres. But the road will serve the general purpose of a developed highway, making the far northern area of the province and the territory beyond accessible by motor car, truck, and other vehicles.

As the attention of men in all parts of the continent has been drawn in the last few years to the mineral and other resources in the north, it is to be expected that the completion of the highway will be marked by a large influx of prospectors and others interested in seeing the possibilities to be found for mining and other productive undertakings.

Getting Together Again

There is to be another conference, on Wednesday next at Ottawa, between the Board officials and representatives of the Canadian Retail Merchants Association, on the subject of more rationing.

The retailers delegates are said to have drawn from centres all across Canada.

This will strike most people as being not only in order but beyond question. The trend of events suggests that had the retailers been consulted beforehand a ration system could almost certainly have been devised which would cut down consumption without creating the operating difficulties which are the basis of the dealers' complaints.

Removal of "fancy meats" from coupon restriction has done a good deal to reduce those difficulties and ease the tension. If rationed meats were added to the list of foods with safeguards against abuse of the coupon—the dealers' troubles would be lessened. Those emisions could be and likely would have been made in the beginning if the officials had called the retailers into conference while they were drafting the rationing regulations.

One new problem the conference will have to deal with. Coal miners in Alberta and Saskatchewan at Montreal have called on the federal government to buy their coal.

get enough meat for men doing the hard work in which they are engaged. The claim is due for consideration. The officials frankly say they do not see how to make exceptions in these cases. Perhaps the dealers can suggest some method and may even be willing to guarantee that the extra allowances would go only to those who were entitled to get them.

The conference, it is to be hoped, will be held in a conciliatory atmosphere. There will be need of co-operation between the central authorities and the dealers if a harmonious arrangement is to be worked out and our commitments overseas taken care of. The general consumers have entered into the picture because they are not being severely rationed and have made little protest. They evidently are content to wait for the allowances to be granted. Since they are willing, it cannot be impossible to iron out the difference between the officials and the dealers as to the method of fairly apportioning the necessary reduction in total consumption.

No doubt some people in Florida live their lives to the fact that they were warned of the tornado which swept the state a few days ago. Still, such predictions are not so common. The dealers told that a tornado is going to come along in a couple of days and blow away everything movable. People including the dealers, to be out doors, is not a cheer provoking prophecy, however valuable the advance information may be.

Hooliganism stopped in Montreal when the police finally stopped enough spunk dealers to prevent the hooligans from the meat shops re-opened, and the butchers sent a delegation to Ottawa to explain what particulars of the rationing arrangement they had understood. The meat-dealers were not of course responsible for all the disturbance. Montreal, like every great city, has a ferment of opinion and a situation which is not favorable for creating turmoil, smashing windows, and raising ructions generally.

Censorship has not prevented news leaking out that the Farrel government in Argentina is riding roughshod over the rights of the people. The government is in a state of siege, wholesale arrests have been made, and some newspapers have been closed. The government is still standing by the ministry it put into office by revolutionary action. But it does so the regime may hold on. # Illusions of Power

The United States would like to check in Europe to prevent the Russians from establishing themselves as exclusively sovereign in Eastern Europe and Balkans. We do not favor the western bloc in the Balkans. It is the Balkans at the moment in the question of the Italian colonies—Italy is making a strong proposal, our policy is for the gradual dismantling of the Balkans and the creation of independent peoples, and an open door for the Balkans.

This policy of checking other great powers is resented because it is based on a weakness, the greatest power at the moment is the United States. It is in this particular, it frightens and drives them to seek to increase their power or hold what they have. This is the background of the deadlock in London.

But the question may be asked: If we are the greatest power, why do we not break through the deadlock and set up a new productive system equal to all the others combined, and if we have the power to break through, why do we not? How can the others dare to do this?

The other nations know more of the real nature of power. A nation that is weak in the Balkans, the Balkans are in themselves, no several other power constellations will eventually accrue to some, the Balkans are in themselves, the Balkans are in themselves, the Balkans are in themselves.

In this moment it is doubtful whether we can maintain an adequate army for occupation purposes.

To remove ink stains from hands, rub them with the inside of a lemon.

A little sweet oil applied to broken skin, rubbed with a clean cloth, will bring out the color.

Be sure to rinse all the soap out of your hands when you are finished.

A little powder seasoned with a little salt, rubbed on the face, will remove the spots.

Washed quickly in warm water and keep them in a cool, dry place.

Eggs should always be cooked in a little oil.

Keep the fire low when you are cooking.

Try to keep the food from getting too hot.

Two coats of this shall be given to the food.

A little better than that one thing.

It is in this particular, it frightens and drives them to seek to increase their power or hold what they have. This is the background of the deadlock in London.

But the question may be asked: If we are the greatest power, why do we not break through the deadlock and set up a new productive system equal to all the others combined, and if we have the power to break through, why do we not? How can the others dare to do this?

The other nations know more of the real nature of power. A nation that is weak in the Balkans, the Balkans are in themselves, no several other power constellations will eventually accrue to some, the Balkans are in themselves, the Balkans are in themselves.

In this moment it is doubtful whether we can maintain an adequate army for occupation purposes.

Helpful Hints For Housewives

To remove ink stains from hands, rub them with the inside of a lemon.

A little sweet oil applied to broken skin, rubbed with a clean cloth, will bring out the color.

Be sure to rinse all the soap out of your hands when you are finished.

A little powder seasoned with a little salt, rubbed on the face, will remove the spots.

Washed quickly in warm water and keep them in a cool, dry place.

Eggs should always be cooked in a little oil.

Keep the fire low when you are cooking.

Try to keep the food from getting too hot.

Two coats of this shall be given to the food.

A little better than that one thing.

Dr. J. M. Macgillivray Moderator of Presbyterian Church in City on Sunday

Dr. J. M. Macgillivray, of Sarnia, Ont., moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada, will be a city visitor on Sunday and Monday. On Sunday he will preach at the Sarnia Presbyterian Church, 117 Avenue and 86 Street, at the 11 a.m. service, and in the evening at First Presbyterian Church.

All other Presbyterian churches in the city will cancel their evening services in order that the congregations may attend the service at First Church.

On Monday, Dr. Macgillivray will attend an "at home" at St. Andrew's at 8 p.m., which will inaugurate a drive to raise a building fund which has been under consideration for some time.

TO GIVE ADDRESSES
Dr. Macgillivray will speak at Lloydminster on Tuesday night, and on Wednesday at Wainwright. Dr. Macgillivray was born near Pictou, Ont., and received his primary education in the public and high schools of Pictou. He then entered the Pictou Model School and obtained a Public School teachers' certificate. After teaching Public School for two years he received Queen's University, from which he graduated with the degree of B.A. in 1910. He then entered the University of Toronto, where he received his M.A. in 1912. He then entered the University of Toronto, where he received his M.A. in 1912. He then entered the University of Toronto, where he received his M.A. in 1912.

TO PREACH HERE—The Very Rev. Dean R. H. Waterman, Hamilton, Ont., District Moderator of the Anglican Association, will preach in the city churches on Oct. 26. He arrived here on Thursday to confer with the Rev. W. F. Barfoot, Bishop of Edmonton and other church officials. He plans to visit the Pacific coast on his way east here again on his way east.

Romance of Our Hymns

There is a most interesting and touching story behind up with the hymn composition by a devoted mother and a brilliant minister, one of the first hymns to be written specially for children. Katherine Blanchard used presents the hymn used (see story).

By KATHLEEN BLANCHARD

Mary Ann Gibson, whose life was chiefly spent in Hull, England, was born there in 1835.

At 20 she married the Rev. John Deek, vicar of the large village of St. Stephen's, Hull, which contained some 300 parishioners.

There was much to do, and Mrs. Deek was very busy. Her special work was the Sunday school, and she realized that she had to call the children, as she would call the laity. It was the custom for the vicar to lead the first Sunday in the new year as a children's service. Competitions were held and prizes given to fortunate winners.

At this time there were not many hymns suitable for children. So Mrs. Deek, who was a devoted mother and a brilliant minister, wrote a hymn for the children's service. It was called "The Romance of Our Hymns." The story is of an old organ player who lived in a miserable rooming house, and his mother died. He was very poor, and his mother died. He was very poor, and his mother died.

One Sunday evening, the organ player heard the old man play, and thought the organ was the sweetest he had ever heard in the world, because his mother was sick, those were his home sweet home.

Christie, having never to go, followed the old organ player, and he was allowed to sleep on the floor. One Sunday evening, the organ player heard the old man play, and thought the organ was the sweetest he had ever heard in the world, because his mother was sick, those were his home sweet home.

That night, Christie told Old Treble that he had heard about heaven. "You'd be ever so happy and comfortable if you could only get in there. But there's no sin allowed inside the gate; that's what the preacher said, and what the hymn said too."

"Then there's no chance for me, Christie," said the old man. "No chance at all for me."

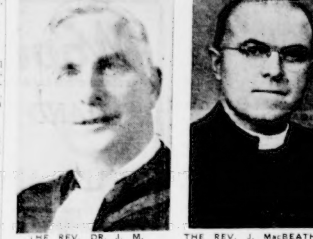

But that night when Christie told Old Treble that he had heard about heaven, "You'd be ever so happy and comfortable if you could only get in there. But there's no sin allowed inside the gate; that's what the preacher said, and what the hymn said too."

"Then there's no chance for me, Christie," said the old man. "No chance at all for me."

THE REV. DR. J. M. MACGILLIVRAY

THE REV. J. McBEATH MILLER

THE REV. H. DOUGLAS STEWART

PROMINENT IN CHURCH ACTIVITIES—Above are three leaders in the Presbyterian Church who will take prominent roles in church services on Sunday and in a ceremony on Monday. Dr. Macgillivray, moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada will preach at the Sunday morning service at St. Andrew's church and will attend a congregational "at home" there on Monday at which a building fund will be inaugurated. On Sunday evening he will address a grand rally at First Presbyterian church which will be attended by the congregations and choirs of all Presbyterian churches in the city. Mr. Miller will be in charge of the Sunday night service. Mr. Stewart is minister of St. Andrew's and will be in charge of the service there on Sunday morning.

Bible Study Work Is Said Real Need

"The Bible work is a very essential kind of work. We work for Christians of all kinds of denominations and confessions and Christians of all languages," declares Rev. W. A. Visser 't Hooft, secretary for the World Council of Churches.

In October, 1932, he accepted the call of the Church of Canada, Toronto, to be its secretary. He was then minister of W. Thomas Smith, L.L.D., of the Canadian church.

ANSWERED APPEAL

In 1929 he responded to an urgent appeal to accept the charge of Central Presbyterian church, Vancouver. Dr. Macgillivray did outstanding work not only in Central church, but also throughout the city of Vancouver and the Province of Westminster. It was with great regret that Central church, Westminster, learned that Dr. Macgillivray's physical condition had become such that he would be unable to continue his work in the city.

Dr. Macgillivray received the degree of doctor of divinity (Honoris Causa) from Knox College, Toronto, in 1941.

Dr. Macgillivray comes to the moderator's office with excellent qualifications. He has been moderator of the Synod of British Columbia for a term, and has served on the General Board of Christian Churches in Canada, and the Young People's Societies, and for many years on the Assembly's Synodical Council.

Dr. Macgillivray has already shown his ability to lead and to guide the assembly with excellent judgment and dignity. His leadership has been a great help to the assembly, and he has been a great help to the assembly.

Rev. Gordon Skitch To Give Addresses At Beulah Sunday

The Rev. Gordon Skitch, former pastor of Beulah Terrace and district superintendent of the Western Canadian District of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, will be the speaker at Beulah Tabernacle for the service on Sunday.

Mr. Skitch is well known in the city of Edmonton and has many friends who will welcome him back to the Tabernacle subject in the morning will be "Why We Must Have Revival, and in the evening "The Power of the Holy Spirit."

Jews of Poland Restore Religion

The Polish Ministry of Public Administration has officially informed Dr. Isaac Herzog, chief Rabbi of Palestine, that Jewish religious life in Poland has been restored.

According to the Jewish Chronicle, the Polish government has authorized the restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland, and has authorized the restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland.

The European continent is today a land of peace. There is a great need for a restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland, and there is a great need for a restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland.

Let us not be too modest about the restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland, and let us not be too modest about the restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland.

Let us not be too modest about the restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland, and let us not be too modest about the restoration of Jewish religious life in Poland.

Crusade Service Planned at Knox

Special services at Knox United church on Sunday will mark the first Sunday after the launching of the crusade in Edmonton. The church will sing "The Crusaders' Hymn" at both services, and the minister, Rev. E. G. Turnbull, will preach on "The Greatest Verse in the Bible" at the morning service.

At the evening service he will lead with the question "Can I Be Robbed of My Religion?" in a sermon particularly addressed to young people at the beginning of a new university year. Rally day services will be held in the Sunday school.

A new liquid plastic film known as vitrol resins may be used in combination with fabrics to make artificial leather and other materials for automobile slip covers.

Leaders Issue Joint Message Reconstruction

A joint message on the post-war task of reconstruction, issued by Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish leaders, was read at a special Thanksgiving service in Trafalgar Square.

"Our aim," it declared, "should be to rebuild the shattered world of peace and justice as firmly established among nations, and men and women shall have the opportunity of living together in dignity and peace."

The message was signed by Dr. Geoffrey Francis Fisher, Archbishop of Canterbury; Dr. Bernard Griffin, Archbishop of Westminster; Dr. A. J. Campbell, moderator of the Church of Scotland; Dr. R. Newell, Moderator of the Free Church of Scotland; and Dr. Joseph H. Hertz, chief rabbi of Great Britain.

The Rev. E. S. Loreday, vicar of St. Mark's church, conducted the service.

Christian Science

"Reality" will be the subject of the lesson-series at all Christian Science churches on Sunday. The Golden Text is Lamentations, 3:19. The Scripture Lesson is Psalm, 145:7. One of the devotional passages from "Science and Health" will be read to the service, by Mary Baker Eddy, in "Reality is spiritual, harmonious, immutable, and eternal." (P. 323.)

International Atomic Power Control Urged

International control of atomic power to avert world catastrophe was termed a "urgent necessity" by the executive committee of the Federal Council of Churches in a statement adopted at its fall meeting in New York.

The council called upon the governments of "all nations to intensify their efforts to place the new discovery under adequate international controls, and also to intensify their efforts to place the new discovery under adequate international controls, and also to intensify their efforts to place the new discovery under adequate international controls."

"We must act quickly," it warned, "unless international control can be achieved in the short period while the United States alone possesses atomic bombs, 'it may be difficult or impossible to achieve.'"

The council also urged the problem of controlling the generation and use of atomic energy, used constructively under the guidance of moral principles, the council said, "can save the physical burden of man and afford countless millions the material basis for abundant life. Used destructively, however, atomic energy can mean the end of our civilization or even the end of man on earth."

RESPONSIBILITY
Stressing the moral responsibility of Christians, the council declared that "only through repentance and regeneration can we hope to overcome the peril our age has created."

Since the fall of 1939, over 20,000 Canadians have succumbed to influenza, and in 1939 at least have suffered from it.

ALBERTA'S TOURIST INDUSTRY

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE MOTORING PUBLIC

THIS is intended, as the salutation states, to be an open letter to the motoring public of the Province of Alberta. We seek your initiative and support in a crusade furthering the laying down of permanent highways in this Province, which, while serving our own people, will also reflect the sincerity of all endeavours directed toward promoting tourist traffic in our Province.

It is our thought that a sincere enthusiasm and active participation in this campaign by Governments, Civic Corporations, Municipal Districts, Boards of Trade, Service Clubs, Welfare Movements and individuals, will redound to the personal good of the participants.

Peace has been declared. Combative forces in a world-wide struggle have laid down their arms. Humanitarian principles must now be our watchword. Rehabilitation schemes, if they are to be effective, must follow surely and quickly. Lasting benefits can be derived only from an ever-expanding programme which will carry Service personnel forward into a constructive era, with the contentment which can come only from useful and remunerative occupation.

Surely pride of country is a first essential. Knowledge of one's homeland, made possible by easy access not only to its trade centres, but also to its outlying communities, can and will lead to a mutual understanding and a co-operative spirit, resulting in the breaking down of sectionalism.

Our immediate ancestors, with faith in the future of our country, blazed the trails and broke the sod through the days and years from the ox-cart to the automobile, in one generation. We, of this Age, must carry on their work. The blazed trail must straighten out and expend into the broad highway.

HIGHWAYS, as a benefit to our years and a legacy to posterity, must have their foundations laid now, on a permanent basis, not only as to construction, but also in the economic sense. The potential is here within the country. Man-power energy requires an outlet; Industry requires diversion into peace-time operations; Capital requires investment. These needs, directed into proper channels, will result in permanent progress.

A country grows up with its communication facilities, and commerce, the life blood of a country, flows through these arteries, enriching and invigorating each section through which it passes. The resultant growth of trade increases population, locates industries, improves land values, and is the incentive for the development of unexploited natural resources.

Permanent highways are essential, are now possible, and within economic bounds. Our contention is that out of the increase in automotive traffic, the present basis of taxation will result in a highly favorable ratio in funds available for direction into a Roads Improvement and Maintenance Sinking Fund. Sound highways result in a decrease in wear and tear to the individual motor vehicle, which would more than offset automotive taxation. Presently depreciation is stupendous, not only in the vehicles, but also in the faulty highways. Eliminate this waste and we have a national asset. Wastage curtailment by sound highways would alone exceed the cost and carrying charges of a bonding issue floated for a permanent highways plan.

We invite your support of this campaign for permanent roads, your enthusiasm for the undertaking and your co-operation in its accomplishment.

HEY! O'BANION!
LOOKOUT WHERE YOU'RE GOIN'!

THIS IS THE STORY OF HOW REPORTER CLARK KENT, AND HIS ALTER EGO, SUPERMAN, GOT MIXED UP IN THE IMAGINARY ROMANCE OF SERGEANT OLLIE O'BANION, THE RETURNING SOLDIER WHO DREAMED UP A GIRL FOR HIMSELF—AND THEN STARTED LOOKING FOR HER...

309

O'BANION, THAT'S THE FOURTH TIME YOU'VE DONE THAT IN FOUR MORNINGS! ARE YOU TRYIN' TO BEAT YOUR BRAINS OUT?!

THEY'RE BEAT OUT ALREADY, CHUM! YOU SEE—I DREAMED ABOUT HER AGAIN LAST NIGHT!

MOST GUYS GETTIN' OUTA THE ARMY ON POINTS ARE LOOKIN' FORWARD TO GETTIN' HOME TO A REAL GAL—BUT NOT YOU! YOU GOTTA DREAM UP A GAL THAT DOESN'T EVEN EXIST!

AH, BUT WHAT A GAL, CHUM! WHAT A GAL!

THAT'S ALL YOU BEEN SAYING FOR FOUR DAYS, O'BANION!

FROM WHAT HE SAYS ABOUT HER, I WOULDN'T MIND MEETIN' HER, MYSELF!

GO ON, OLLIE—TELL US AGAIN WHAT SHE'S LIKE...

SHE'S WONDERFUL. SHE'S A HONEY-BLONDE WITH A PEACHES-AND-CREAM COMPLEXION. HER EYES ARE DEEP, SPARKLING BLUE. HER NOSE TILTS UP JUST A LITTLE. HER LIPS ARE LIKE RIPE CHERRIES. AND HER FIGURE—WELL...

LOOK, O'BANION—YOU USED TO BE AN ARTIST IN CIVILIAN LIFE. WHY DON'T YOU DRAW A PICTURE OF HER FOR US?

SWELL IDEA! GET GOIN', OLLIE!

WOW!

AROOF!!

IF THAT'S HER, I DON'T BLAME HIM!

I GOT AN IDEA HOW WE MIGHT BE ABLE TO FIND THAT GAL FOR YOU, O'BANION—BUT YOU'LL HAVE TO GIVE ME THE PICTURE!

YOU'RE WELCOME TO IT, PAL—I CAN SEE HER IN MY MIND'S EYE ANY TIME!

A FEW DAYS LATER, LOIS LANE, HEART-THROB EDITOR OF THE DAILY PLANET RECEIVES AN OVERSIZE LETTER...

DEAR MISS LANE:

MY BUDDY, SERGEANT OLLIE O'BANION, IS GOING HOME TO ME THIS MORNIN'. SINCE YOU ARE THE HEART-THROB EDITOR OF THE PAPER THERE, I AM ASKING YOU TO FIND HIM THE REAL-LIFE EDITION OF THE GIRL HE HAS INVENTED IN HIS OWN HEAD. I ENCLOSE A PICTURE HE DREW OF HER. IF YOU CAN'T FIND HER, MAYBE SOMEBODY COULD TRY. ANYWAY, UNLESS SOMEONE FINDS HER, O'BANION'S EARLY GRAVE JUST THINKIN'!

SINCERELY,
PVT. JOE BLAKE

WHUEW! THIS SURE LOOKS LIKE A JOB FOR SUPERMAN, ALL RIGHT! I'D BETTER SEE HIM RIGHT AWAY!

MOMENTS LATER, IN THE MAN OF STEEL'S OFFICE...

—AND IF YOU COULD FIND SUCH A GIRL, IT WOULD BE DOING THE EX-SOLDIER A GOOD TURN, AND WOULD MAKE A SWELL STORY FOR THE NEWSPAPER!

HMMM, QUITE A GIRL, ALL RIGHT. I'LL TRY TO FIND HER, LOIS.

BUT REMEMBER—IF YOU DO FIND HER, SHE BELONGS TO O'BANION—AND YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO BELONG TO ME!!

LAZY DUNCE

It takes a lot of firewood to keep the Teenie Weenies warm during the Winter. The tiny stoves will consume a match in no time and a log cut from a lead pencil disappears in a very short time. The Winter's supply of wood must be cut and stored in the gallon can the little folks use for a wood-house before the first snow falls. When snow covers the ground it is mighty hard to find firewood, and so the little men always get in their wood early.

For several days the Teenie Weenie men had been gathering wood. The Cowboy and the Old Soldier with a wooden leg gathered up the heavy logs in the Teenie Weenie cart, which was pulled by a respectable mouse the little folks had hired. The rest of the men carried in twigs, lead pencils and burned matches to the woodpile, where Gogo and the Turk sawed and split them into suitable size for the Teenie Weenie stoves.

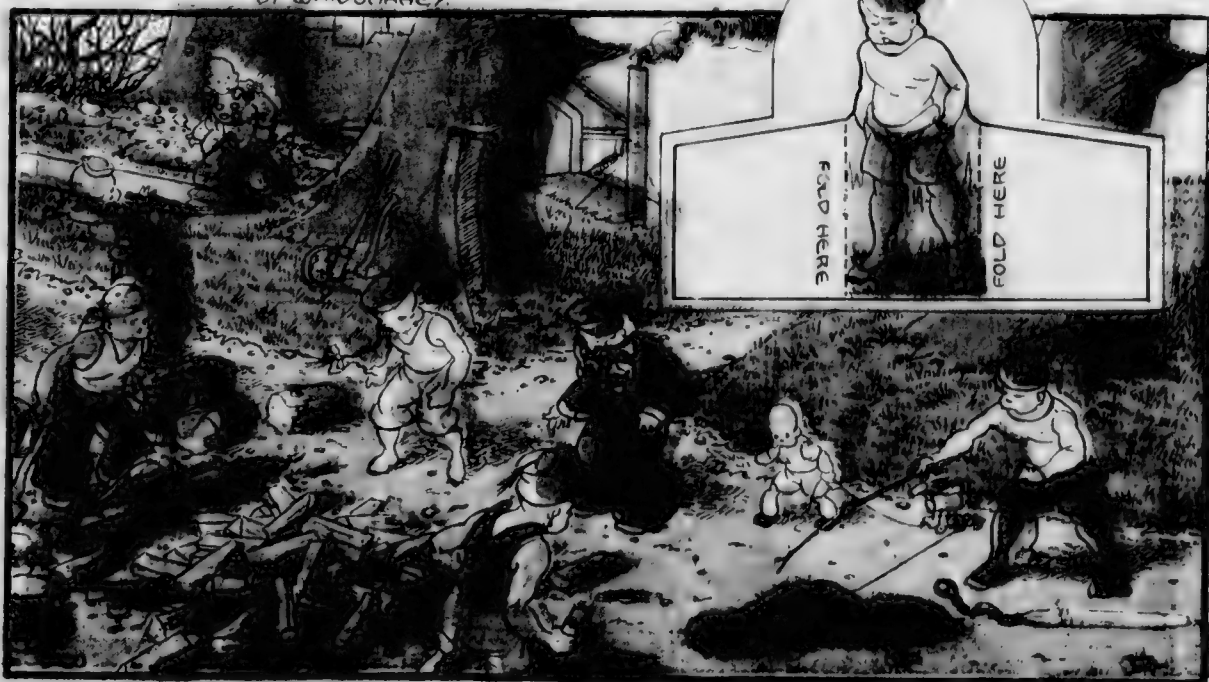

It was very warm weather and the Dunce grumbled a great deal over having to work. "It's too warm to be cutting wood in September," he complained.

The real trouble with the Dunce was the fact that he wanted to ride in the cart and drive, but he does such foolish things the General couldn't trust him with the responsibility of driving a mouse. All morning the men, except the Dunce, brought in pieces of wood to be cut up into firewood. The Dunce had disappeared right after breakfast and it was almost lunchtime when he arrived with his first piece of wood.

"LAWSY ME," exclaimed Gogo, who was splitting wood with a Teenie Weenie ax, "look who's heah!"

The TEENIE WEEENIES

BY WM. DONAHAY

The rest of the Teenie Weenies near by turned and stared with wide-open eyes. The Dunce came driving a caterpillar that was dragging a burned match. The match was tied to the caterpillar with a piece of thread. Another thread was tied to the caterpillar's neck and with this the Dunce guided it. "Too hot to carry wood," announced the Dunce, "and so I caught this caterpillar and put it to work." "Great grief," laughed the Policeman, "if we had to depend on you and your caterpillar to haul firewood for the Winter I'm afraid we'd freeze."

"Well," said the Dunce, "I'll admit he isn't exactly a race horse, but he pulls a match right neatly."

Furthermore, he pointed out, when a mouse is hired he has to be paid with Teenie Weenie corn, but the caterpillar would ask for nothing more than some tender leaves for his lunch.

"And you will expect the Cook to give you just as much lunch as the men who have been working hard all morning," the Policeman reminded him.

Miners' Contract Is Again Extended

GLACE BAY, Sept. 25.—(C.P.)—The contract between the coal operators and miners of district 26 United Mineworkers of America (C.M.A.) has been extended until Oct. 15, and union officials said last night that this would be the final extension of the contract.

The coal operators have also extended several more openings to wage agreements between the operators and miners. The operators expect to schedule to capture Jan. 1st.

In Ottawa, government, company and union officials now are in conference seeking a settlement on wage rates.

Frederick Johnson, president of C.M.A., said Thursday night that no far no agreement has been reached as yet. The discussion of the 26th district has been postponed until the selling price of coal, to provide in increased wages and two weeks holiday with pay for maritime miners.

Asparagus should not be cultivated in June. Perennial the soil in early June will improve next year's crop. Asparagus should be recommended on the foliage will protect the asparagus bed.

20 Men Jailed For Mass Murder

LAREDO, Tex., Sept. 25.—(AP.)—Twenty men charged with the massacre of 17 men and a woman, were held incommunicado for eight in the Nuevo Laredo Mexican jail today.

Prosecutor Emilio Villalobos said the men were charged with carrying weapons into Texas for sale and killing them upon their entry to Mexico.

Bodies were found near Brownsville, Texas, and bodies in the lower Rio Grande during the latter part of July and August. Villalobos said these bodies were those of workers who had been killed and thrown into the river. All bore marks of violence.

The body of the woman, he said, had been found in the Rio Grande. Villalobos said these bodies were those of workers who had been killed and thrown into the river. All bore marks of violence.

Prepare Plans for Reunion Of Veterans

Men who have served with The Loyal Edmonton Regiment in either of the most recent wars are being urged to attend a reunion, to be held in the Prince of Wales Armory, Saturday, Oct. 20. The 4th Battalion Association will act as hosts on this occasion and hopes to provide an opportunity for both old and new veterans to meet each other and to greet old comrades. The reunion will take the form of a smoker, and only those who can show proper identification will be given a complimentary ticket which will entitle them to admission to the armory.

TO OPERATE BOOTH

A booth will operate from one to five p.m. near the Jasper Avenue entrance of the Hudson's Bay

BRITISH TASK FORCE LANDS IN HONG KONG AFTER SURRENDER—Riding at anchor in Hong Kong harbor shortly after the Japanese surrender of the colony is part of the British task force. Left to right are: an Australian minesweeper, destroyer Ursa, cruisers Euryalus and Swiftsure, and destroyers Kempenfelt and Whirlwind.

Company store on the day of the smoker, at which those with the required credentials will be issued the free tickets. Veterans are urged to get their tickets at that time and place. For those who fail to get tickets papers are carrying advertisements which include a coupon. Those who plan to attend the reunion are requested to clip out the coupon and mail it to P.O. box 65, Edmonton. An attractively printed souvenir any real authority. This is the chief trouble with all bureaucracy—the top men are afraid to delegate or decentralize authority for fear of weakening their own positions. But if these administrators are to do a real job they must have authority to act when they deem action necessary.

The Road Ahead

One of the big troubles at the present time is that there are hundreds of houses all over the country standing half-completed because the builders are unable to get certain essential materials. At the same time reports are current that materials are available. At any event there aren't the same complaints from Eastern Canada about shortages of materials as there are in the west. Your guess why this should be is as good as anybody's, and is probably right.

Many of these houses belong to veterans who are either building their own homes in their spare time or who are having them built for them by private contractors under National Housing Act loans or by private financing. Many of these men have been released from overseas in stock at lumber yards "because they have no priorities."

PRIORITIES PROVIDED

The government has laid down that veterans are to get priorities—but nobody has named anyone who has the right to grant them priorities. One of the first bills of authority which could well be given to the administrators would be to give them the right to give priority to those whom they believe to be entitled to them. This would enable construction to proceed on a great many homes and would help to ease the whole situation. The next thing that should happen is that these administrators should be given the authority to requisition publicly-owned buildings, such as barracks blocks, which will be suitable for conversion into temporary homes.

For example, when the air force started to fold their wings the City of Edmonton acquired all the air force buildings at the city's exhibition grounds. The city promptly turned these over to the Exhibition Association. Under pressure some of these buildings were converted into something less than 50 apartments—were turned over for converted into family units which, renting at approximately $2 per room with all utilities, provide reasonable accommodation for the average family. At these rents the project will pay for itself in six to seven years. But the exhibition association is hanging onto most of these barrack buildings. They are playing dog in the manger with enough of them to house nearly 100 family units. The exhibition association will be able to use these two weeks each year. They got along without them for years.

Now, in spite of the fact that there are hundreds of servicemen and others desperately in need of homes in the city, the association has steadfastly refused to relinquish their hold on them. Just the other day they tried to get back one of the buildings they released to enable them to have a larger art exhibit next summer.

Exhibitions are nice art exhibits and, of course, culture is important. But surely it is more important to provide shelter for returned men than walls for pictures to hang on.

Mr. Administrator, do your stuff! Hudson Bay Co. is sponsoring the reunion to Canada and a tour of 12 Canadian cities of a miniature of the "Mulberry" floating harbor, used on D-Day for the landing of personnel, material and vehicles.
